Obituary

Odell Dowe exchanged his earthly life for eternity with the Lord early Tuesday morning, April 7, 2015, at the Clarendon Memorial Hospital, Manning, SC. He was born on April 30, 1954, in Summerton, South Carolina, to the Late Kirby Lee and the Late Lula Mae Benbow Dowe.

In his early years, Odell attended the public school of Clarendon District One. Later in life, he worked for the Coca-Cola Bottling Factory in Wilmington, North Carolina and Brunson's Septic Tank in Manning, South Carolina. Though he never married or had children, Odell had a very big circle of friends. He had a unique way of Loving everyone around him, especially "sister", his Aunt Lillie Mae. Odell was a caring, and helpful person, who always had a smile on his face and was never afraid to share his Love and make new friends.

Those left to mourn his passing are brothers, Kary Dowe of Loris, South Carolina and Curtis Lee Dowe of Columbia, South Carolina; his sisters, Lillie Bell (Michael) Johnson of Columbia, South Carolina and Sharon R. Barno of Sumter, South Carolina; two uncles, Lonnie (Marie) Sabb and Ulysses (Rebecca) Dowe both of Manning, South Carolina; seven aunts, Lillie Mae (William) Hilton of Manning, South Carolina, Christine Ziglar of West Palm Beach, Florida, Mary Miller of Queens, New York, Ida Mae Broadwater and Jean Doughty both of Wilmington, North Carolina, Mary Emma Parker and Mary Ella Dowe both of Manning, South Carolina; his great aunt, Inez Dingle of Bronx, New York and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and many dear friends and Loved ones.

In addition to his parents, Odell will be rejoined with his three brothers, Evon, Levan, and John Irvin Dowe; two sisters, Irlene Bracey and Darlene Dowe all of whom preceded him in death.
