The Obituary

A Time to Be Born:

Alonzo Reid McDonald known to all, who knew and loved him as “Brother”, was born in Manning, South Carolina on December 6, 1931 to the late Charlie Davis and Mary Brown Miller McDonald.

A Time to Grow:

Alonzo attended the public schools of Clarendon County, graduating from St. Paul High School. He also attended Allen University, Columbia, South Carolina. Alonzo became a thriving farmer shortly after completing his education and farmed for 63 continuous years until his health failed in 2014. He was tremendously devoted to his mission and saw life as a challenge filled with opportunities for success.

A Time to Die:

On Saturday, October 10, 2015, Alonzo “Brother” Reid McDonald departed this earthly life at Clarendon Memorial Hospital in Manning, South Carolina. He was preceded in death by a brother, Richard Miller and a sister, Eloise Gaymon.

A Time to Mourn:

His memorable moments will be cherished by his three sisters, Vera Wineglass of Indianapolis, Indiana, Alma B. Mack of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and Blondell M. Fargas of Summerton, South Carolina; one brother, Charles (Loretta) McDonald of Manning, South Carolina; ten nieces; six nephews; a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.
