The Obituary

George Bradshaw, Sr., was born on February 20, 1925, to the late Sarah Bradshaw Golson and the late Henry Horton. He was raised by his aunt, the late Francis Bradshaw Hampton in Summerton, South Carolina.

George joined Historic Liberty Hill A.M.E. Church at a young age and maintained a connection with the church throughout his life. He received his formal education in the public schools of Clarendon County and as a teenager began employment with the Port of Charleston.

Around 1941, George established residence in Miami, Fla, where he began employment with the Borden Dairy Factory until his retirement. George was an ardent worker and a kind hearted gentleman. He was always willing to help others in need. George was an entrepreneur, an a very successful businessman who owned and operated a social gathering establishment, named "Rose Bar" in Miami, FL. He was blessed with seven children. His eldest son George "Nick" Bradshaw, Jr preceded him in death.

George was a beloved father, brother, uncle and friend to many. In the early morning hours of February 17, 2015, at the University of Miami Hospital, he was called home to be with his Savior.

His memory will be cherished by two daughters, Melinda Sallins of Louisville, KY and Tara Stovall of Tampa Bay, FL; four sons, George Bradshaw, III of Lexington, SC, Kenneth Bradshaw of Hampton, VA, Derrick Bradshaw of Miami, FL and Gene Stovall of Miami, FL; 10 grandchildren; one great-grandchild; a loving and caring friend Clara Sallins of Miami, FL; a devoted sister Annie McDonald of Columbia, SC; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends
