Ecclesiastes 3:1,2 - "To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted,...."

Keith Alexander Smith exchanged time for eternity on Saturday, July 5, 2014, in Manning, SC. Born on June 15, 1968, in Brooklyn, N.Y., he was the son of Christine Sabb Ziglar and the late Samuel Murphy.

Keith received his education from the public schools of Brooklyn, New York, but he graduated from Pahokee High School in Pahokee, Florida.

Throughout his life, Keith made sure his presence was known wherever he went. He made sure everyone around him felt loved with his contagious smile, jokes, laughter and tight hugs. For the last ten years, Keith had given his heart to Yolanda Kelly.

Those left to mourn his passing are his son, Raquon Dupree, of Manning, SC; his mother, Christine Sabb Ziglar, of West Palm Beach, FL.; his brother, Ronnie A. Smith, of Daytona Beach, FL.; his sisters, Kelly Smith, of North Carolina and Gizette Smith, of New York; six aunts, Lillie Mae (William) Hilton, of Manning, SC, Ida Mae Broadwater and Jean Doughty, both of North Carolina, Mary Miller, of New York, Louella Howard and Evinna Wilson, both of Sumter, SC; two uncles, Lonnie (Marie) Sabb, of Manning, SC and Olley Wilson, of Sumter, SC, his nieces, nephews, other relatives and many, many dear friends.
