

Homegoing Celebration

In Loving Memory

of

Mr. Warren Plowden, Jr.

February 13, 1939 – April 15, 2014

Saturday, April 19, 2014
2:00 PM

St. John Baptist Church
(Bloomville Community)

3944 Brewer Road
Manning, South Carolina 29102

The Reverend David Pugh, Pastor

THE OBITUARY

Warren Plowden Jr., (affectionately known as "Biggie" to some and "Bobby" to others), departed this earthly life on April 15, 2014, at Palmetto Health Richland Memorial Hospital, Columbia, South Carolina.

He was born on February 13, 1939, in Clarendon County, to the late Warren Sr. and Lula Johnson Plowden.

He received his education in the public schools of Clarendon County. He moved to New York where he was employed at Cimmie Mattress Company until he retired. Upon retiring in 1994, he returned to Manning along with his loving wife, Wilamena. He reunited his membership with the St. John Baptist Church (Bloomville Community), where he was a dedicated and faithful member serving as a Trustee and in many other capacities.

He enjoyed watching sports especially baseball and football. He also loved planting his garden and sharing the fruits of his labor with his family and friends. He enjoyed sitting on his front porch early in the morning just watching nature and everything that passed by. He enjoyed spending time with his family especially the newest addition to his family, his granddaughter, Camera Mena Cherry whom he affectionately called "Buggaman."

He married his love, Wilamena Pringle of Brooklyn, New York. This marriage blessed him with an additional three step-sons in addition to his four children.

"Biggie" is lovingly remembered by his devoted and faithful, wife: Wilamena Pringle Plowden, of the home; his children: Darrell (Sharon) Plowden of New Jersey, and Joan, Cathy and Jonathan Plowden, all of New York; his stepchildren: a devoted and special step-son Kevin Cherry of the home, Bobby Cherry of Ridgeland, SC and George Pringle of New York; grandchildren: Darrell Reggie, Schneil, and Toney Plowden, and Errielle Thompson; great-grandson: Kaleb Plowden; in addition to eleven step-grandchildren and four step-great grandchildren; two sisters, Evangelist Cassie (Edward) Gibson and Martha Bines, both of Manning; brother-in-laws, the Rev. J.H. Pringle of Pinewood and James (Daisy) Pringle of Maryland; and sister-in-laws, Easter Mae Plowden of New York, Julia Ann Pringle and Louise Merchant of Washington, DC, Stylish Lawson of New York, Deloris (Moses) McKnight and Mable McKnight of Florida; a loving and devoted niece and nephew, The Honorable Patricia Pringle of Pinewood and James Sinkler, Jr. (J.J.), of Manning; and a host of other nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by four sisters, Dorothy Lowe, Annie Reddick, Jannie Bell Gibson and Ethel Sinkler; four brothers, Eugene, Edward, David, and James Plowden.

"Your battle is now over, no more tears flowing down your cheek, no more pain, no more suffering, now you are no longer weak."