

Mrs. Mary Lee Adams Brunson

Mary Lee “Flaudell” Adams Brunson was born on October 12, 1945, in Clarendon County to the late Franklin and the late Mary Watson Adams. She grew up in a very large and loving family. On October 21, 2014 Mary entered into eternal rest at Tuomey Healthcare Systems in Sumter, SC.

“Flaudell” as she was affectionately known, received here formal education in the public school system of South Carolina. She was baptized as one of Jehovah’s Witnesses in 1977.

One day while picking blueberries in the field, “Flaudell” saw this man driving a tractor and her BIG pretty eyes just simply stole his heart. A few years later, “Flaudell” became his wife. As a result, the love they shared in this union, they were blessed with six children. Eventually, they moved to New York where she received a job as Nursing Assistant at Blythedale Children’s Hospital in Valhalla, NY.

Mary was dependable and a loving person, easy to converse with and always spoke her mind. She was the strongest person we knew. As time goes on, we too will get stronger and stronger. Some memories will fade but, Mary will never be forgotten.

“Flaudell” was predeceased by two sons, Willie “Pop” and Joseph; two brothers, Robert Adams and Andy Adams; one sister, Earlene Wilder; one sister-n-law, Mary Ida Adams; two brothers-n-law, Earl Davis and Willis DuVose.

Those left to cherish her loving memory, her devoted husband Willie of 53 years; two daughters, Denise (Craig) Burnett and Marissa Brunson; two sons Deric and Torrey Brunson; four grandsons, Javon Brunson, D'andre Brunson, Javon Cox and Craig Burnett; four granddaughters, Desneke Burnett, Leshanda Brunson, Jasmine Burnett and Kyla Cox; four brothers, Samuel (Nancy) Adams, Franklyn Adams Jr., Ransom (Rosa Mae) Adams, Leon (Mary) Adams; four sisters, Julia Clark DuVose, Nancy Davis, JoAnn (Willie) Richburg and Sarah (John) Holliday; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends.
